

Welcome To Our Website

Iosco Township is located within the southwest quadrant of Livingston County. Iosco Township was settled in 1835 and organized into a township in 1838. It is the county's least populated township with 3,801 people according to the 2010 census.

Agriculture is a big way of life within the township. Iosco has only one population center, the settlement of Parkers Corners. Farmsteads, churches and cemeteries are dotted across the countryside of Iosco Township.

View PDF

